1. The barracks of units of the Rumanian 9th Division at Constantza have been occupied by newly-arrived Soviet troops.
2. The 9th Division itself, which comprised the 34th Infantry Regiment, two other infantry regiments, the 24th Artillery Regiment, and the 9th Cavalry Regiment, has been disbanded.
3. There are only about 400 Rumanian troops and a naval fire brigade about 50-60 strong at Constantza.
4. All the coastal artillery is in the hands of the Soviets.
5. In the vicinity of the town there are a tank division, a mixed artillery division and a motorized infantry division.
6. In July there were big Soviet troop movements between Constantza and Tulcea.
